

RALLY : Paris in the XXth century !
Places	QUESTIONNAIRE
I Rue Campagne première	The name of the street (« campagnard ») has nothing to do with its rural past. It recalls the beginning of the Revolutionary wars. In the Montparnasse area, there are lots of elements that remind us of the cultural heritage that dates back to the first half of the XXth century. 1 Locate precisely the buildings of that time. <hr/> 2 Give the names of the artists who frequented these places. <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
II Rue d'Assas	In a cul-de-sac near the school, in front of a University botanical garden, there is a hidden house (and museum) that used to belong to a Russian sculptor of the XXth century. 3 Who is he? <hr/>
III Jardin du Luxembourg (entrée côté rue Guynemer)	In the public gardens, near the school and the hives, stands another of his statues. 4 Who does it represent ? <hr/> <hr/>
IV Sénat	My current president is called Christian Poncelet and I am based in a palace originally built for an Italian Queen of France. 5 Give the name of the building. <hr/> 6 Since when do I live there? <hr/> 7 Give the name of the queen. <hr/>
V Jardin du Luxembourg (entrée côté rue Guynemer)	In the Luxembourg gardens, on the side of Guynemer street, look for the most photographed statue; it is a replica of its twin sister in New-York! 8 What do this statue, the one on the Grenelle bridge and the one at the centre of the Denfert- Rochereau square have in common ? <hr/> <hr/>

VI Av.de l'Observatoire	Along the Observatoire gardens, at the angle of Auguste Comte street an official building displays a very unusual façade in the oriental style 9 What former function of the building explains its unusual style? <hr/> <hr/>
VII jardin Cavelier de La Salle	My first designates, in English and in French, a means of transport, my second is an Italian river, and my whole is a French sculptor of the XIXth century. 10 Who is it ? <hr/> At the entrance of the Observatoire gardens, search for the precise place from which you can both see the Sacred Heart and the Observatoire. You will find on the spot a fountain with one of my master pieces. 11 Identify the allegories on this sculpture and use the answer to find its the name. <hr/> <hr/>
VIII Bd Raspail	The name of this famous hotel evokes the Gallo-Roman past of Paris. It played a very special part in the history of the after war. 12 Give the name of the hotel and explain what happened there after WWII. <hr/> <hr/>
IX Bd Saint Michel	On the front of this prestigious engineering school near the Luxembourg, we can still notice traces of the two world wars. 13 Identify the traces and say to what events they date back to using the plate on the wall. <hr/> <hr/>
X rue du Four	In a street whose name recalls the instrument used by bakers and potters, a metal plate on the building (between numbers 40 and 50), evokes a famous event that took place during the French resistance. 14 Give the name of the event. <hr/>

	15 Which hero of the French resistance organized the event ? <hr/>
XI rue de Rennes	In a street whose name recalls the name of a town in Brittany, at about 200 meters of the famous tower and station, this building is now a fashionable shop of Spanish origin. Right next to this shop, a metal plate recalls a tragic event that recently occurred in Paris. 16 What is it? <hr/> 17 Who put up this plate and when? <hr/>
XII Place Camille Julian	Right next to the school, just outside the Port Royal station, there is the statue of a man no one ever really notices, despite the fact that he greatly contributed to the expansion of the French colonial Empire in the XIXth century. 18 Who is it and regions did he explore? <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
XIII Place du 18 juin	This monument is 210 meters high, overlooks the whole Montparnasse area and illustrates the urban planning of the 70's. At a time it used to be a station and a very important event took place there after WWII. A metal plate at the entrance of the shopping centre recalls this famous event. 19 Give the name of the event. <hr/> 20 How many windows are there? 1500 ? 3500 ? 7000 ? 9000 ? <hr/>
